

Health and Safety Policy Statement

This policy statement should be read and studied along with the Health & Safety policies that set out particular duties and preparations through which Health & Safety is to be organised, carried out and monitored in the company. With these guidelines, employers have certain rights and responsibilities, which can be confusing for businesses to keep track correctly. A safe system of work is a procedure or policy that you create to help minimise risks. It often includes a detailed risk assessment, which can help create awareness of the risks and identify who may be at risk

We are committed to ensure our work complies with the Work Health and Safety Act 2011, the Work Health and Safety Regulation 2011 and applicable codes of practice and Australian Standards as far as possible.

1. ICONIC CLEANING is devoted to presenting healthful and secure running surroundings for all employees and non-employees laid low with our activities. We will use all affordable endeavours to make certain of secure structures of labour during our enterprise activities, and would do all that within the practice to make certain of secure and healthful running surroundings and methods.
2. Creating a General policy coverage is the most important responsibility, and the primary goal being to promote the accurate requirements of health, safety and welfare that observe the Health and Safety at Work Act 2011 and all different statutory provisions and codes of practice.
3. At ICONIC CLEANING, we do have clear communication with our management system, employees and our clients. Clear communication is most important for keeping high standards of Health and Safety at work.
